BEDFORD HISTORICAL SOCIETY 2016 – 2017

The mission of the Bedford Historical Society is to collect and preserve the unique history and traditions of the people and places in Bedford and to share this rich heritage with the community. As we work to increase awareness and appreciation, we are committed to making history interactive, approachable and exciting.

PROGRAMS and EVENTS

Wednesday, March 29

2:00 - 3:30 pm

St. Elizabeth Seton Church

Civil War Presentation

Jess and Maryann Whitten have been Civil War Reenactors for more than 20 years. During that time they have taken part in reenactments of many famous battles including Pickett's Charge, Chickamauga, and Antietam as well as smaller reenactments throughout New England, New York, Oregon and various southern states. They will be presenting insight into both the military and civilian life of the era. Clothing, military and civilian, books, CDV's, and other objects relevant to the time will be displayed. There will also be information about the hobby of Reenacting. There will be time for questions and to examine the displays.

Free Will donation of $5. This is a fundraiser for the Stevens-Buswell Community Center Project.
